Clergy Reflection

God Has A Different Plan

We begin the season of Advent with a heartfelt call for our own repentance. We remember God's faithful love for us, and call upon God to help us to turn back. For "behold, you are angry, and we are sinful" (Isaiah 64:4). In the first reading and in the psalm, we recall God's promises and lament our unfaithfulness and our guilt. We call upon God's might and power in order to save us. With Isaiah, we ask God to "rend the heavens and come down, / with the mountains quaking before you" (Isaiah 63:19).

Yes, God is faithful to us, because we are the work of God's hands. God is the potter, we are the clay. And yet, our concept of how God will come to save us is rooted in our own expectations of a warrior God who crushes mountains and thunders into our lives with great noise and glory. But God has a different plan: the Incarnation.

Today's Readings

First Reading — We are the clay and you, O LORD, are the potter: we are the work of your hands.

Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7

Psalm — Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved. Psalm 80

Second Reading — God is faithful; by God you were called to fellowship with the Son. 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Gospel — Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. Mark 13:33-37

A Stewardship Prayer

Jesus, I give my whole life to you, I thank you for creating me, dying for me, and rising for me.

Please give me a spirit of service and love so I can pour out myself for others as you did for me.

In gratitude, I offer myself to you, asking for the grace to keep you first in my heart.

Help me to use everything You have given me to serve You, my parish, and all those around me. Amen

Parish Life

Dear St. Justin's

When have you seen real MISTLETOE in Houston? The Boy Scout Troop of St. Justin has come across some for this holiday season. They will be selling real mistletoe after Mass today in the parish hall as a fundraiser for the troop. Please stop by their table to purchase some today.

Sleeping Bags For The Homeless

The Respect Life committee will collect and distribute sleeping bags to homeless people again this Winter. Please bring clean, preferably new, sleeping bags to the parish hall during the month of November; the deadline is December 8. They will be distributed during the first cold snap of December. Anyone wishing to help the Committee to distribute the sleeping bags, is welcome to submit a request in writing (with name, address and phone number/e-mail address) addressed to the Respect Life committee and delivered to the parish office.

Immaculate Conception of Mary

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary is the day we remember and celebrate that she was conceived without original sin in preparation for her vocation as the Mother of God.

Mary, under this title, is also the patroness of the United States of America. This Holy Day of Obligation is therefore a special opportunity and time to pray for our nation.

We will celebrate the Holy Day at the following Masses:

December 7: 7:00 p.m. Vigil Mass

December 8: 6:00 a.m.

December 8: 9:00 a.m.

December 8: 7:00 p.m.

If you are a St. Justin Martyr Liturgical Minister please consider serving at Mass. Sign-up in the brides-room.

Social Ministry News

While he lived St. Nicholas gave the little ones he met, small gifts . . . some candy, a toy. The children learned what a beautiful thing giving is. He once said: “It’s good to give and have only God know.”

St. Justin is celebrating the Feast of St. Nicholas today, Sunday, December 3. We invite everyone to celebrate the gift of giving.

Your giving will bring joy to a child whose Christmas might otherwise be sad, as well as helping your family to celebrate the true meaning of Christmas. God bless you.

Reminder: Wish Ornament gifts are due back by December 6.

Social Ministry gave 13 Thanksgiving Meals to needy families.
